

Jesse Bartz – Chief of Staff; Assistant Corporate Secretary

Jesse started at MGEX in 1996. She has a well rounded view of the Exchange as she has held positions in membership, statistics, real estate, Audits & Investigations, research, and marketing at the Exchange. Jesse became the Assistant Corporate Secretary May 11, 2000 and became Chief of Staff July 1, 2005.

As Chief of Staff, Jesse oversees a majority of the current projects being executed at the Exchange including special projects with the president. She also directs the membership department and acts as a liaison between the board, president and members.

As Assistant Corporate Secretary, her primary responsibilities include documenting and maintaining official records and minutes of the Exchange.

Along with her position at the Exchange, Jesse currently serves on the Board of Directors for the Hennepin History Museum, serving as VP from August 2008 – February 2010.

Jesse graduated with a BA from the University of Minnesota at Morris in 1995 with a double major in Political Science and Anthropology.
