MGEX, ALLENDALE, INC. PARTNER ON WEEKLY TRADING TIP

MINNEAPOLIS — The Minneapolis Grain Exchange (MGEX or Exchange) proudly announces the introduction of weekly trading tips in conjunction with Allendale, Inc., a commodity research advisory firm headquartered in McHenry, Ill.

The tip will appear every Tuesday afternoon on the MGEX website at www.mgex.com and will provide current analysis of the market from Allendale's Advance Charting Division.

"We are happy to partner with the MGEX to deliver our expertise in industry research through this weekly chart and market information," said Joe Victor, Vice President of Marketing at Allendale, Inc.

For the MGEX, the project presents yet another opportunity to provide market information to traders in conjunction with MGEX partner firms. "The Exchange offers a forum for price discovery and risk management services," said Nancy Krull, MGEX Director of Marketing. "This program is another service we can provide to those interested in trading MGEX contracts."
