

Sandra Sullivan – Director, Market Regulation

Sandra worked for 20 years within the securities, futures, insurance and banking industries before accepting her current position at the Minneapolis Grain Exchange in January 2006.

Sandra is responsible for regulatory oversight of MGEX. Her team in the Department of Audits & Investigations (A&I) monitors and enforces the rules of the Exchange. A&I also watches trade activity to prevent manipulation, price distortion and disruption of the delivery or cash-settlement process.

Sandra's career experience includes regulatory oversight to ensure compliance with broker dealer requirements and variable insurance product requirements, as well as national bank safety and soundness requirements. She has had direct involvement with the settlement and management of various domestic and global assets, including negotiation of debt instrument settlement terms.

Sandra lives with her son in Plymouth and is dedicated to various volunteer efforts. She is on the Minnesota Hockey District 3 Board of Directors, and is the chairperson of Armstrong Youth Hockey S.K.A.T.E. educational program.

Sandra received her B.S. in Finance from Florida Southern College. She has held National Association of Securities Dealers securities and compliance licenses along with Minnesota and Wisconsin Life/Accident/Health/Variable Insurance licenses.
