

Georgette McDonald – Director of Business Services & Product Development, MGEX

Ms. McDonald is currently the Director of Business Services and Product Development at MGEX where she is an integral part of cross functionality. In this capacity, McDonald works to build a bridge between business units including the Clearing House, Marketing and Business Development departments. Her responsibilities include business services management and development of new opportunities related to products.

Before coming to the Exchange, McDonald worked in both Marketing and Product Development roles for the Chicago Mercantile Exchange, West Thomson, GMAC and U.S. Bancorp. Her most recent role was Finance Director for the Wealth Management division of U.S. Bancorp.

McDonald graduated from the University of Chicago with a B.A. in Economics and earned her MBA in Finance from DePaul University's Kellstadt Graduate School of Business.